ALLOWED TO GO ON HIS RECOGNIZANCE

Lawrence Pea Who Escaped From Sheriff and Later Gave Himself Up, Pleads Guilty Today

NOT SENTENCED FOR PRESENT

Mrs. Marguerite Haugh Dismisses Petition For Modification of Order Regarding Children

Lawrence Pea, charged with grand larceny in connection with the theft of several bushels of corn from the Theodore Reed farm last Saturday night, was arraigned today before Judge Sparks and entered a plea of guilty. He was brought in court this afternoon at two o'clock, and Judge Sparks did not pass sentence on him, and allowed him to go on his own recognizance.

Court was taken up this morning with the civil suit case of Ave Swords against his brother-in-law, Scott Lawson, in a replevin suit to recover household and other effects which Swords alleged were being detained by Lawson. The court after hearing the evidence, took the case under advisement.

Pea when brought in court, entered a plea of guilty, and sentence was not passed at this time, being sent back to jail until two o'clock this afternoon. It was at this time that the was allowed to go, until sentence is passed.

The early part of the afternoon was taken up with a probate case of McKee against McKee, over the matter of placing the executor of an estate under a bond. No decision was reached as the matter was taken under advisement.

This afternoon at one-thirty was the time set for hearing the petition filed by Mrs. Marguerite Haugh of Indianapolis, who asked for modification of a court order concerning the custody of her children. A later petition filed also asked for a change of Judge. Mrs. Haugh dismissed the petition about modifying the decree, and the action concerning a change of judge was also dropped because of no further action pending in the case that would necessitate a change of judge.

Mrs. Haugh a few weeks ago filed a petition asking the court to modify the decree of the custody of the two children belonging to her and her divorced husband, J. Guy Haugh of Indianapolis, requesting that she be given the custody as it was her natural right as a mother to have the children.

It was a few days following this petition that another petition was filed asking that another judge be named to hear the petition. At present time the children are supposed to be in an Indianapolis orphan's asylum, being placed there by an order from this court, but it is understood that the children's father has taken them to parts unknown, without any official permission.

ENTER ROOM BY WINDOW

Physicians Find Miss Spohn, Milliner, Suffering With Hysteria

Miss Spohn, a milliner, who lives at the home of Mrs. Susan McColgin, 721 North Morgan street, suffered an attack of hysteria yesterday shortly after dinner, in her room at Mrs. McColgin's residence, and today physicians reported her condition improved. Miss Spohn looked herself in the room, and it was necessary for physicians to use a ladder and enter her room through a window. She was found in a semi-conscious condition sitting in a chair and twelve hours was required to revive her.

MRS. GEORGE KEMMER DIES.

Mrs. George Kemmer living in the vicinity of Nipp's mill, northeast of Rushville, died this afternoon about three o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Kemmer was about 60 years old and is survived by a husband and three sons. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

CORONER FILES HIS REPORT

Dr. J. M. Lee Says Pitman Child's Skull Was Fractured

Dr. J. M. Lee, county coroner, filed his report this morning on the death of Robert Pitman, 31 year old boy who was struck by an automobile recently in Glenwood, and instantly killed. The coroner stated that the child met death instantly and suffered a fractured skull. His verdict did not place any blame, as it is not necessary for a coroner to do so, as the grand jury will take this matter up when they convene.

It will be recalled that the child was struck by an automobile driven by Glen Sommerville, a 16 year old high school student, who with others was returning from Connersville, when the accident happened.

HOOVER GIVES IDEAS ON INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Says Collective Bargaining and "Good Will" With Public Opinion as Pressure, is Only Hope

IS AGAINST THE INJUNCTION

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 14.—Collective bargaining and "good will," with public opinion executing the only pressure, are the only hopes for industrial peace, Herbert Hoover told the senate labor committee today.

No revolutionary steps should be taken, he said. He declared against injunction and compulsory arbitration. "I do not believe that the relationship between labor and capital can be settled by any of these because they lead to the jail as a means of enforcement," Hoover declared.

It leads to the border of martyrdom and tends to make for compulsory employment and compulsory wage.

"The only hope for industrial peace lies in moderate employment and moderate labor workers," Hoover added.

DECEPTION IS USED TO SELL SEWING MACHINES

Suave Salesman Induces People to Sign "Receipt" Which Later Turns Out to be a Note

SOME RUSH COUNTY VICTIMS.

Deception is being used to sell sewing machines in this county, it was reported today by a Rushville attorney who had been informed about the scheme by one of the dupes of the salesman.

The victims of the trick always get a machine, but it is a sort of a forced sale which is obtained through misrepresentation.

A suave salesman calls at a farm house and offers his sewing machine for inspection. He elaborately displays its good points, and finally convinces the customer that he should be allowed to leave the machine on trial for a few days. But the rules of his company, however, provide that he shall have a receipt for every machine he places on trial, he says.

Of course, no one objects to signing a receipt, but it develops in a few days after the salesman's visit that there is a note at the bank for the customer to pay. He calls and finds that he had signed a note instead of a receipt, which indicates that Rush county people should inspect carefully all the papers they sign, especially when dealing with foreign sewing machine agents.

TO ELECT 14 NEW BISHOPS

Des Moines, Ia., May 14.—The Methodist General conference today adopted without a change the report of the Episcopal committee which recommended the election of fourteen new bishops and the formation of seven new church areas. The election of the bishops will take place today.

TICKET IS NAMED WITHOUT INCIDENT

Some Interesting Contests Develop in Republican State Convention, But All Are Friendly.

LEW BOWMAN IS DEFEATED

Question Where 16 Uninstructed National Delegates Will go Interests Politic Observers.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14.—The question of interest in Indiana's political circles today was:

"Where will the support of Indiana's sixteen uninstructed delegates to the republican national convention fall?"

Following the action of the state convention instructing ten delegates for Major General Woods, four for Senator Hiram Johnson and leaving 16 uninstructed, political observers today pointed out that Wood had not carried the state despite his primary plurality and fight in the convention for instructed delegates.

Four of General Wood's delegates compromise the "Big Four," who are instructed to support the general so long as he has a chance for the presidential nomination.

The convention voted a majority of 7 in favor of instructing the four delegates at large.

The convention ground away at nominating a special ticket yesterday afternoon without incident, following the excitement incident to the battle for instructions for Wood.

There were some interesting contests, particularly those for the offices of lieutenant-governor, attorney-general, auditor and treasurer, but they were conducted without confusion and in a friendly way. The convention did not close until nearly 8 o'clock, and it was rumored at the last minute that earlier in the day the convention had neglected to adopt the eagle as the party emblem.

One of the delegates who remained on duty to the last was Miss Esther Griffin White of Richmond, the only woman delegate in the convention. Many suffragists looked on her with envy from the galleries and the stage. A program of songs was given by the Huntington G. O. P. Quartet, composed of attractive women who know how to sing.

Following the nomination of E. F. Branch of Martinsville for lieutenant-governor on the third ballot candidates for nomination for state offices who had no opponents were nominated by acclamation. All the men now hold the offices for which they were nominated. The list was: Ira C. Bateman of Bloomington, for judge of the appellate court. First district: E. A. Dausman of Goshen for judge of the appellate court. Second district: Ed Jackson of Lafayette, for secretary of state, and L. N. Hines of Crawfordsville, for superintendent of public instruction.

W. G. Oliver of Franklin, was nominated for auditor by a vote of 796 to 712, over Lew Bowman, of Richmond. No other candidates were placed in nomination and it required only one ballot to make the choice.

Ora J. Davies of Kokomo, was nominated for treasurer on the second ballot when David Scott of Linton, and Charles Lanz of Bedford withdrew. The vote on the first ballot for the four candidates placed in nomination was: Davies, 523; Scott, 461; Lanz, 162, and Ben Urbahn of Valparaiso, 361. Urbahn withdrew after the first ballot, and when Tippecanoe county was reached on the second, Lanz withdrew his name. Scott then moved that Davies' nomination be made unanimous.

Julius C. Travis of Laporte, was nominated for judge of the supreme court. Fifth district, over Burton B. Berry of Benton county, and H. B. Tutbill of Michigan City. Before the announcement of the vote on the first ballot, Tutbill withdrew, moving that the nomination of Travis be made unanimous. Travis was nominated by unanimous vote. The announcement of the vote was: Travis, 1,000; Tutbill, 369; Berry, 139. Late in the afternoon Senator New turned the gavel over to Will R. Wood of Lafayette, congressman, and left for Washington before the close of the convention.

REFUSES TO TREAT WITH THE REBELS

Carranza, Reported Hemmed in by Revolutionists, Will Not Discuss Terms of Any Character

HIS SAFETY IS GUARANTEED

Deposed President's Forces Suffer Heavy Casualties in Last Forty-Eight Hours

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, May 14.—President Carranza, reported hemmed in by rebel forces near Esperanza Station, has refused to treat with the revolutionists, General Obregon said today in a telegram received here. Obregon said that guarantees of Carranza's personal safety to Vera Cruz had been made.

General Obregon declared Carranza would be captured within a few days.

Vera Cruz, May 14.—Carranza forces have suffered several hundred casualties in fighting in the region of Hacienda Tamarit in the last forty-eight hours, according to reports here today.

Revolutionist leaders claimed their troops were gradually closing in on the deposed president. They expect his surrender or capture within the next few days.

The rebels claim to have more than 15,000 men subject to their order. The president's forces are estimated at about 6,000 troops.

British circles were worried today over the fate of the British consul at Vera Cruz. He was reported to have left with the president on his special train when it was captured by the rebels.

British subjects in Mexico appealed today to their government to send a warship to Vera Cruz, it was reported, and one of the vessels at Bermuda has been ordered to go immediately to Mexican waters.

Two American destroyers and one supply ship were in the harbor here.

GENERAL HILL WELL KNOWN IN RUSHVILLE

Obregon Aid in Mexican Revolution Intimate Acquaintance of Several Local Men

KNOWN AT IND. UNIVERSITY

General Benjamin Hill, who is one of General Obregon's aids in the revolution in Mexico, is known to many former Indiana university students in this city. Many of his old friends here remarked that the General Benjamin Hill mentioned in dispatches, might be "Bunker" Hill they knew at I. U. A number of Rushville men belonged to the same fraternity as he and were intimately acquainted with him. The following dispatch from Evansville, his former hometown, reveals his identity:

General Hill was a student at Indiana University and was graduated in 1905. He was known there as "Bunker" Hill, and his brother was nicknamed Peak. He was famed at school for his piano playing ability and was a member of Indiana Chapter of Beta Theta Pi. Roy Sammons of this city, was a fraternity brother of his. Hill married a classmate, Miss Hazel Ribble of Muncie. Other Evansville men who attended the university at the same time were Isador Kahn, Carl Wild, John Rheinhardt and Thomas Dierksen.

General Hill has led an adventurous career in Mexico. He escaped from Mexico City about the time the capital fell and took part in the Sonoran revolt. Before his affiliation with the rebel army he practiced law at Tucson, Ariz.

WILSON WAS CONSULTED

Washington, May 14.—President Wilson was consulted by Secretary Daniels before the latter made public the president's secret cabinet and confidential speeches delivered during the war in which he criticized the British naval policy. It was announced today at the White House.

NO DAMAGE FROM THE FROST

Vegetables and Fruit Not Far Enough Advanced, it is Said.

With clearing weather last night, combined with the continued cold wave, a heavy frost took place, but farmers and gardeners were of the opinion that the frost did not do any serious damage, as growing vegetables and fruit was not far enough advanced to be killed or injured. The weather indication for tonight predicts another frost. Farmers maintain that a frost now is not unusual as from the tenth to the fifteenth of May each year, it is generally called the "blackberry rain" season, which is always accompanied by cold and wet weather. The weather bureau, however, advised gardeners to protect any plant that might be injured seriously from the frost.

STATE CONVENTION TO BE AT VINNENNES

Christian Churches of County Will be Well Represented at Meeting May 17 to 20

ALL WILL SEND DELEGATES

The state convention of the Disciples of Christ will be held at Vincennes, Indiana, May 17 to 20. Five hundred delegates are expected to attend this meeting which is expected to be one of the greatest conventions every held.

Appropriate programs have been prepared for each session of the convention and many prominent speakers will be present. Reservations may be had by applying to the Rev. L. C. Howe, pastor of the Christian church at Vincennes.

All Christian churches of the county will be represented at this meeting. The Rev. L. E. Brown and probably others, will represent the Main Street Christian church of this city, and the Rev. G. H. Lawton, Fred Woods and George Carwein will go as delegates from the Arlington Christian church.

PASTOR OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH QUILTS

The Rev. C. J. Bunnell Resigns to Accept Call to Burnettsville Where He Formerly Preached

HERE ALMOST THREE YEARS

The Rev. C. J. Bunnell resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church last night, it was announced today, and his resignation was very regretfully accepted, to take effect the first Sunday in June. He has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Burnettsville, Cass county, where he was pastor fourteen years ago, serving for four years.

It will be three years next August since the Rev. Mr. Bunnell accepted the call from the Rushville church. He came here from Elwood, succeeding the Rev. S. G. Huntington, who resigned to take up state church work. Seventy-seven new members have been added to the church during his ministry here. A committee was appointed last night to look after a supply to continue services regularly and consider calling a new pastor.

During the Rev. Mr. Bunnell's pastorate at Burnettsville, a new church was erected there, and just three years ago a new parsonage was also built. The congregation there is one of the best and most influential in northern Indiana outside of Logansport.

INJURIES IN FALL FATAL

Sew Albany, Ind., May 14.—William C. Lennon, age twenty-one, a son of Charles H. Lennon of Winchester, died last night at the City Hospital here as a result of injuries suffered ten days ago in a fall from a scaffold at the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville, where he was superintendent of a construction contract.

37 SENIORS WILL GRADUATE MAY 26

E. J. Llewellyn of Newcastle Will Deliver Class Address to Rushville Graduates.

MORE GIRLS THAN BOYS

Only Seven Boys in This Year's Class Which is Unusual—Closing Days Are Busy Ones.

Thirty-seven seniors will be graduated from the Rushville high school Wednesday night, May 26, when E. J. Llewellyn of Newcastle will deliver the class address to Rushville graduates. The exercises will be held in the Graham Annex auditorium commencing at eight o'clock. An unusual thing is noted in the class roll this year in the fact that of the 37 graduates only seven are boys, and the remaining thirty are girls.

The senior class festivities have already begun, their two class plays on the evenings of April 29 and 30 being first on the program, and the Junior-Senior reception will be held next Friday evening, which will be the second big event on their class calendar.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered this year by the Rev. C. J. Bunnell, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, at the Main Street Christian church on Sunday evening, May 23, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Senior class day exercises will be held on May 24, at 1:15 o'clock in the high school assembly room. The Seniors will finish up their school work the middle of next week.

E. J. Llewellyn, who will deliver the class address, needs no introduction here, as he is well known, having served as chautauqua platform manager here last year and has often times spoken in this city. He is superintendent of the Newcastle city schools, and is an orator of unusual ability.

Those who will receive diplomas on that night will be as follows:

La Vern Bishop, Frances Kathryn Bunnell, Vivian Aldean Bebout, Rubyetta Charman, Marjorie Clark, James Alfred Caldwell, Janet Dean, Frances L. Dugan, Phyllis Casady Gartin, Norma Beatrice Headlee, Georgia Lucile Hunt, Clarence B. Jordan, Josephine Margaret Junken, Edith Theodora Kiser, Marguerite Kelly, Weldon L. Kennedy, Howard Amos Kendall, Mary Lillian Laughlin, Helen Naomi Matlack, Mary Louise Miller, Lillian Esther Mallins, Ruth Martin, Mabel E. Mills, Leonard B. Moore, Stella Offutt, Elizabeth Adeline Pierson, Gladys Robinson, Rees Hazle Risk, Sarah Josephine Schell, Jean Frances Sparks, Ruby Sparks, Dale Thibert, Helen Thomas, Mary Louise Weath, Joan Emma Winkler, Edith Winkler, Mary Clifton Winkler.

ADOPTS MILITANT PROGRAM

Pres. Wilson Plans to Make Peace Treaty an Issue

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 14.—President Wilson has prepared a militant and dramatic political program which as leader of the democrats he will prosecute with vigor against the republicans and the insurgents in his party until the San Francisco convention nominates a candidate.

This information has been received by the most ardent supporters of the president in congress and is confirmed by the sharp message he delivered to congress in vetoing the legislative appropriation bill and the demand that the democrats make the peace treaty a paramount issue in the campaign.

BRITAIN'S IRISH POLICY DISCUSSED

Lord French Says Policy is Dictated by Self Preservation And Based on Geographical Position

TOO CLOSE TO ENGLAND

Field Marshal Discusses Interest of U. S. in Irish Question—Admires Our Federal Gov't

By WEBB MILLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Dublin, (By Mail) This is a report of a conversation—not an interview—with Field Marshal French, Viceroy of Ireland, Lord French insisted upon making the distinction.

The Viceroy is evidently a brave man—morally as well as physically, because only a few minutes before the conversation he had drafted a repudiation of a similar conversation with the correspondent of a London newspaper as being "unauthorized and a misrepresentation of what passed."

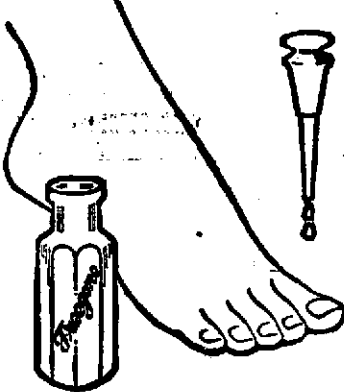

Despite his previous experience with "conversations", the doughty old Field Marshal consented to discuss the Irish question for American newspapers saddling the responsibility for whatever was published upon the correspondent.

"You know, I never give interviews", he said. "Of course, I have conversations with pressmen and whatever they write is their own affair. But I am not responsible for what they say I said or did not say, and do not authorize anything."

The correspondent decided that his moral courage was equal to the Field Marshal's in this instance. So Lord French is hereby relieved of responsibility for whatever appears in this report of the "conversation." But to the "best knowledge and belief" of the correspondent this is a Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

Notice of Meeting of Rush County Board of Review.

Notice is hereby given that the county board of review of Rush County, State of Indiana, will meet at 10 o'clock A. M. on MONDAY, JUNE 7th, 1920, the same being the first Monday in June of said year, in the court house of said Rush County, State of Indiana, for the purpose of reviewing all assessments and of inquiring as to the valuation of the various classes of property or parts thereof in the respective townships and divisions of the county, and to make such changes in the assessments, whether by way of increase or decrease in such valuation of such various classes of property, as may be necessary to equalize the same in or between the townships, or any taxing unit and to determine the rate per cent to be added or deducted in order to make a just and equitable equalization in the respective townships and divisions so as to conform throughout the county to a just and equitable standard. All of this to be done in order to equalize the valuation of property and taxables returned by the assessor and made subsequent to March 1, 1920, and to correct any list of valuation as it may appear proper either by adding to or deducting from, such sums as are necessary to fix the assessment at the true cash value and in all cases when the board of review deems it necessary to add omitted property or to increase the valuation returned by the assessors, to correct errors in the names of persons in the description of property upon the assessment list and in assessment and valuation of property thereof, and shall cause to be done whatever else may be necessary to make the lists and return of assessment comply with the provisions of an act of the general assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act Concerning Taxation, repealing all laws in conflict therewith and declaring an emergency," approved March 11, 1919, and shall pass on each valuation, and may on any cause being shown, or on its own motion, correct the assessment of valuation of the various classes of property in such manner as it may in its judgment make the valuation thereof just and equal.

Said county board of review at said meeting will assess the capital stock and franchises of all companies represented on the list of valuations as are valued by the State Board of Tax Commissioners and will consider and act upon all recommendations made by the county assessor.

In witness whereof, I, Wm. H. McMillin, auditor of Rush County, State of Indiana, have hereunto affixed my hand and the seal of the board of county commissioners of said county, this 13th day of May, 1920.

Wm. H. McMillin,
Auditor of Rush County.

faithful report of what transpired. In a remarkably frank half-hour conversation the Field Marshal discussed the underlying reasons for Britain's present policy toward Ireland. He conveyed the impression that the British policy is dictated by that strongest of human instincts—self preservation, while the policy from the physical standpoint is based upon the geographical position of Ireland upon the flank of England.

Replying to the correspondent's statement that many people in the United States probably knowing little of the real situation were unable to understand why England would not grant full self-determination to Ireland, the Viceroy explained why England was forced to withhold complete self-determination.

"We can't grant Ireland full self-determination," he said emphatically. "They're too close to us. Self-determination has its limits. It must be applied within reason otherwise the nations of the world would break up and eventually revert to something like the ancient feudal system, if self-determination were carried to extremes. For instance, the city of Dublin might say 'we will have nothing to do with the rest of Ireland' and the city of Belfast might do the same I might sit here in the Viceregal Lodge and say I'll have nothing to do with the rest of Ireland", he added laughingly.

"Your people in the United States are able to understand our attitude toward Ireland if you remember your War of Secession. It's partly a question of proximity."

In reply to a question regarding Dominion Home Rule, the Field Marshal voiced similar objections.

"They can't have Dominion Home Rule. They are not a dominion, they are a part of the United Kingdom. We cannot give them a government like that of Canada because they are too close to us. It's largely a geographical question, the same as your War of Secession."

The Field Marshal discussed the interest of the United States in the Irish question at length and declared that in his opinion it would never affect the good relations existing between the United States and England.

"We understand and sympathize with your difficulties with certain elements over there. I know the United States and love it and believe that your people will understand our position and the attitude resulting from it."

He displayed a wide knowledge of the American constitutional system and expressed a warm admiration for the federal scheme of government which he termed "the best in the world."

Having heard that the correspondent had a long talk with Arthur Griffith, the vice-president of the "Irish Republic" and the founder of Sinn Fein, only a few hours previously, the Viceroy manifested considerable interest in the personality of the Sinn Fein leader, and inquired about his personal appearance and the impression that he created.

The Viceroy received the correspondent in the historic, Viceregal Lodge which is unusually heavily guarded since the recent attempt upon his life. The lodge is set in the center of a great enclosure in Phoenix Park. In addition to the squads which patrol the enclosure with fixed bayonets day and night, the lodge itself is surrounded with sentries.

Owing to the fear that the extremist faction will renew the attempt upon his life, the Field Marshal's movements are very much circumscribed. Whenever he ventures forth, his automobile is accompanied by an armored car with machine guns trained upon both sides of the streets. Recently his recreation has been confined mostly to frequent horseback rides in the enclosure in the company of a guard.

During the conversation an armed sentry paced up and down outside the big window of the Field Marshal's study which commands a beautiful vista of Phoenix Park with the low Dublin hills in the background. In the distance other guards were visible keeping the vigil over the Viceroy.

Every visitor to the lodge is subjected to an unusually close scrutiny. At several stages of the trip up the long avenue to the Lodge, visitors are halted and re-examined before being passed on to the next post.

At the conclusion of the conversation Lord French reaffirmed his denial of the reports of his forthcoming resignation.

"But you know this is no bed of roses", he added.

After Your Baby Is Born

Think Now About the Time to Come Afterwards.

When you hold in your arms your tiny new infant, be sure that you can feel that before its arrival you did all in your power to give to it a happy pre-natal influence. Scientists say that the thoughts and feelings of the expectant mother greatly affect the health and disposition of the future infant.

For over half a century thousands of women who have used the time-honored remedy, Mother's Friend, say that they entirely escaped nausea, nervousness and that peculiar distressing feeling so usual where nature is resisted. They thus preserved a wonderfully bright and happy disposition, which reflects so markedly upon the unborn child.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend the muscles are made and kept soft and elastic to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion without the usual wrenching strain. The nerves are not drawn upon, and as a consequence the expectant mother is calm and serene and the nights are not disturbed with nervous twitchings, and the crisis is one of joy and happiness.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. H, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Motherhood Book of value to every woman, and get a bottle of Mother's Friend from your druggist and begin a treatment that will bring real results.

WILL H. ADAMS

A spirited contest developed between Will H. Adams of Wabash, the incumbent, and George H. Graham of Logansport, both from the Eleventh district, and Forest Morris of Evansville for the nomination for reporter of the Supreme and Appellate courts in the republican state convention in Indianapolis yesterday. On the first ballot Adams lacked only five of the necessary 755 votes for the nomination and Morris who received only 130 votes withdrew. Mr. Graham piled up a vote of 629 on the first ballot. The second ballot gave Adams 808 and Graham 701. Rooters for both of the candidates made themselves conspicuous during the balloting by frequent cheering.

The Graham boosters went wild when Lake county gave her entire strength on the second ballot to Graham. Marion county divided the vote, giving Adams eighty and Graham sixty-nine.

Of the counties in the Eleventh district Huntington, Blackford and Miami divided their vote equally between the two home candidates; Wabash voted solidly for Adams and Cass for Graham. Grant county, however, gave 25 to Adams and 6 to Graham.

It Might Be Worse

Have you ever contrasted our American methods with those of our cousins across the water? Do it. You will find food for thought.

For instance, we are in the midst of a great national election campaign. Our president's term is expiring and we are choosing the man who will rule more than a hundred million people for the next four years. We will also elect senators and many other lesser lights.

It is an event of first importance to the future of the nation, yet the casual observer sees nothing out of the ordinary. He could hardly detect that we have a vital campaign in full swing.

We decline to become excited. We are making no noise. We take things as a matter of fact, or of course, knowing that each man will vote his own sentiments, and that no matter who wins, the country will move along in the future as it has in the past—always better and greater than it ever has been before. That is America, and our president has more autocratic power in his fist than that possessed by all of the crowned heads left in Europe.

But on the other side of the water it is different.

A change of rulers there usually means violence, and bloodshed, and revolution, if it is a forcible change; or unrest and suspicion if it is a succession caused by death.

The country becomes stirred from one end to the other. Business suffers, jealousies are rampant, and lifelong enemies are created. That is Europe.

Yes, the subject furnishes quite a little food for thought—for one

Run Down From Flu But Vola - Tonic Brought Back Strength

"Vola-Tonic helped me so much that I am glad to make this statement and I hope that everybody who is weak and run down like I was will give this medicine a trial," said Charles Dietrich, 2521 Halstead avenue, Cincinnati, O.

"Last winter I had an attack of influenza and when I got up from it I was weak and run down all over. I tried everything but couldn't get back my strength.

"My appetite was so poor that I didn't eat much of anything at all and what I did eat I just had to force down. Of course, my food didn't do me any good and that is one reason why I couldn't get any stronger.

"I was mighty nervous, too, and couldn't sleep right at night at all and got up mornings feeling even more tired out than I did the night before.

"In short, my system all over was out of fix and I just dragged around at my work and didn't take any interest in anything.

"Finally, I decided to try Vola-Tonic and now I am mighty glad I did. My strength has come back fine and I am full of energy and vigor again.

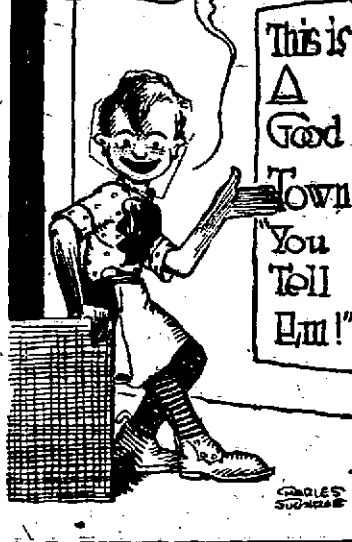

"It wasn't long after I started taking Vola-Tonic until my appetite came back. I'm eating real meals again now. Vola-Tonic put my nerves in good condition also and I sleep like a child at night.

"I hope every weakened, run down person will try Vola-Tonic."

Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength" is being specially introduced in Rushville at Frank E. Wolcott's. (Adv.)

Hopes to Maintain Bond Values

In an effort to prevent the further depreciation of Liberty Bonds and restore them to the full value promised investors during the war, Representative Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey, has introduced a bill providing for the acceptance of the bonds in payment for income taxes. The bill specifies that any person, firm, corporation or association paying $200 or more income tax may pay 35 per cent of it in Liberty Bonds. It was necessary to fix $200 as the minimum amount because no bonds were issued in denominations less than $50, sufficient to meet a quarterly payment of a $200 tax. According to estimates the present revenue bill will bring in about $3,000,000,000. By the provisions of Representative Ackerman's bill approximately one quarter of this amount would be received in bonds, thereby creating a sinking fund. The bill would not apply to the payment of 1919 taxes nor to local or state taxes. It does not provide for the acceptance of any other than Liberty Bonds or Victory notes.

And still the drain in the treasury to meet the deficit of the railroad administration keeps on. Congress has just agreed on the conference report on the deficiency bill which carries over $300,000,000 for the railroad administration. The regime of Mr. McAdoo and Mr. Hines as directors of the railway administration was an expensive luxury for the public.

Government operation of the telegraph and telephone lines under Postmaster General Barleson cost the treasury over $14,000,000. This means that the public has to make up the deficit out of its own pocket, just as it has to make up something like a billion dollar deficit from government operation of the railroads under the administration plan.

Life holds much in store for each of us, but it doesn't dish it out indiscriminately upon request.

Some people are always trying to annex the goose that lays the golden egg, while others are content with the egg.

Politics and religion, they say, won't mix. And we should hope not.

Hiding their lights under a bushel is a favorite occupation with some people. But it's rough on the bushel.

Our Daily Laugh

New and Bright Yarns That Will Tickle You and Will Be Relished by Your Friends When You Repeat Them.

"Well, if there is anything else loose around here that we want, we'd better take it now; don't want to overlook anything," said Hugh E. Mauzy, commander of Rushville commandery, Knights Templar, before leaving Indianapolis yesterday afternoon, after having captured the attendance cup and elected Judge Will M. Sparks, past commander, grand warder on the first ballot.

And if the Rushville Sir Knights did forget anything, it "was purely an oversight. After grabbing about all of the honors, they were not content.

Daring the meeting yesterday morning, it was announced that a stickpin had been found and that the owner could have it by calling at the platform and claiming it.

Yes, Judge Sparks had lost a stickpin, but his modesty would not allow him to walk before the assembled Sir Knights of Indiana and lay claim to the pin after all Rushville had already carried away.

After the meeting, Judge Sparks slipped around to the platform and identified the pin, but the fellows who heard him claim it did not overlook the opportunity to say a few words about Rushville "acting like a pig."

Named For Attorney General

U. S. LESH
Huntington, Ind.

U. S. Lesh of Huntington, deputy attorney general, won the republican nomination for attorney general, in the state convention yesterday over his opponent, John H. Edwards of Mitchell, by a vote of 813 to 689. Before the announcement of the vote Mr. Edwards withdrew his name and a motion that the nomination of Mr. Lesh be made by acclamation was carried.

Lake county's vote of forty-eight went solidly for Mr. Lesh and he attracted ninety-four out of the 149 Marion county delegates. Mr. Lesh, however, lost the vote of Pulaski county, which is in his district. Lesh supporters attributed this lack of support from Pulaski county to the fight in the meeting of the Eleventh district delegates Wednesday night to instruct the district's delegates to the national convention for Wood. Five of Pulaski county's seven delegates voted against instructing the four delegates at large to the national convention for Wood.

Business Man's Stomach Smaller

"My much distended stomach is greatly reduced. Doctors wanted to operate and tap my stomach, but I happened to see a newspaper ad of Mauzy's Wonderful Remedy and after taking 3 doses I have had no more distress or bloating, and am eating things I have not dared to eat for 6 years. I am confident your medicine will cure me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the extraneous mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At Druggists Everywhere.—(Adv.)

Was A Surprise To Neighborhood

"They Are Talking of My Recovery All the Way to Bloomington," Says Mrs. Beal

"My wonderful recovery has not only been a grand surprise to my husband and myself, but to all our neighbors for miles around where we live," said Mrs. Ida Beal, who resides at Normal, Illinois, on R. F. D. 4.

"Why, the people all along the way to Bloomington are talking about the difference Tanlac has made in me," she added, "and I feel it my duty to tell everybody about this grand medicine.

"For twelve years at least my kidneys have bothered me and I have suffered with almost unbearable pains in my back. But this was not my only trouble by any means for at the time I got Tanlac I had not enjoyed a good meal in ten years on account of a chronic case of indigestion. There was hardly a minute when I was free from suffering, and the pains in my back were so severe at times that I simply had to sit down and shut my eyes and hold my head. At times I was almost deathly sick at my stomach, and my kidneys disturbed me so often at night I couldn't get any sound sleep and my back hurt me so bad in the mornings I could hardly dress myself. It was all I could do to get in and out of bed and I couldn't stoop over and pick up anything to save my life on account of the pains in my back. I could not eat anything without suffering so from bloating, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath that I would almost faint. I wasn't able to work but an hour or two a day and that would lay me up in bed with an awful headache.

"This is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac, but I am simply feeling like a different woman now. Tanlac helped me right from the start and in a few days after I began taking it I felt so much better that I was surprised and wondered if it would continue to help me until I got well. I have taken eight bottles now and as I said everybody who knows me is talking about my recovery. My kidneys and back never bother me now and my stomach is in the best of condition. I am eating three hearty meals a day and enjoy them all and never feel a touch of indigestion. I am enjoying good health for the first time in twelve years. Life is a pleasure to me again and I feel so grateful that I want to tell everybody about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, and in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty.—(Adv.)

AIRCRAFT RECORD NATIONAL SCANDAL

$1,051,000,000 is Spent And Not a Single American Built Battle Plane Reached Front

BAKER DISMISSES THE CASE

Rep. Fess in a Recent Speech Said Prices Were Boosted by Cost Plus Contract

Washington, May 14.—"The expenditure of $1,051,000,000 for aircraft and not a single American built battle plane on the front is a national scandal," said Representative Fess of Ohio in a recent speech. "Yet when a presidential commission upon its findings recommends the court-martining of men responsible, and the recommendation is indorsed by the head of the department of justice, the secretary of war dismisses the whole case as unwarranted by the facts. This is but one instance of the war scandal, which can be duplicated in the reports of the investigations, which reveal the most shocking examples of reckless and wicked waste."

"During the brief time we were in war we spent millions to borrow billions in order to distribute the borrowed money among our people on a scale never before so lavish. Prices were at once boosted by the cost-plus contract, until today every item costs at least three times what it cost prior to the war. This was the sap to the profiteer."

"Before the war it cost about $1,000,000,000 to run the government. Next year, two years after the war is over, it will cost at least five times the cost before the war. We must continue to bring to light this riot of business methods, not merely to discredit democratic policy, but first to inform the public how their money paid in taxes was expended, secondly, to lay the foundation to prosecute the criminally guilty parties who used the war for their own advantage, thirdly, to recover from those who defrauded the government and lastly, to marshal the facts necessary to enable us to force discontinuance of numerous war agencies, called into existence by a theorist, which still persist."

Amusements

"The Road to Divorce"
The rocky shore at Laguna Beach, one of the most ruggedly beautiful spots on the coast of California, was chosen for the filming of many of the scenes of the Universal production, "The Road to Divorce" starring Mary MacLaren, being shown at the Mystic Theatre today.

Laguna is a quiet little seaside resort in Southern California. There are many little coves where the placid waters of the Pacific are seldom more than ruffled by the wind from the ocean. There are other places where the sea comes rolling in, in smooth, even swells that break just before they reach the sands of the beach. There are stretches of jagged rocks, jutting out into the water, and towering cliffs that meet the onslaught of the tides and hurl back the huge waves that are flung against them. Though a small place, Laguna offers remarkably varied bits of scenery.

"The Road to Divorce" has many of its scenes laid on the rockbound coast of Maine, and there is no seacoast in America that more closely resembles the rugged New England shore line than the several miles adjacent to Laguna Beach.

"The Open Door" which will be shown at the Mystic Saturday starts with a fight and ends with a grip on your heart-strings. If you like mental excitement and emotional punch in your film fodder this picture ought to fill the bill. The story is one that reaches down into your cardiac region and plays a throbbing melody on your heart-strings, then reaches up into your mental hood and starts your brain motor hitting on all cylinders trying to dope out the mystery and the final solution of the plot.

HOW'S YOUR BLOOD? Pimples and Eruptions Mean Bad Blood

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a temperance remedy made of wild roots and herbs, such as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is and has been for nearly 50 years. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

In place of the impurities, the arteries and veins gradually get fresh vitalized blood and the action of this good blood on the skin means that pimples, boils, carbuncles, eczema, rash, acne and many skin blemishes will disappear. Then you must remember that when the blood is right, the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys become healthy, active and vigorous and you will have no more trouble with indigestion, backache, headache.

Get Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day at any medicine dealer, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10c. for trial package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Write Dr. Pierce for free confidential medical advice or for free booklet on any chronic disease.

Grand Rapids, Wis.—"I had stomach trouble for about eight years. Had to be very careful what I would eat or I would be down sick. I suffered something terrible about a year ago. I started to take 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two bottles put me in fine condition. I can eat anything and do not feel distressed. I had taken many medicines previous to this and had doctors prescribe for me, but nothing seemed to give me any relief."—MRS. EMIL OESTREICH, 212 14th Ave., North.

ASPIRIN FIRST KNOWN IN 1900

The Bayer Company introduced Aspirin to physicians 18 years ago.

If you want the true, world-famous Aspirin, as prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years, you must ask for "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin."

The "Bayer Cross" is stamped on each tablet and appears on each package for your protection against imitations.

In each package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" are safe and proper directions for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, and for Pain in general.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

the lesson entitled "The Price of National Unity", was given by the leader, Mrs. Hargrove. At the close of the program the hostess served light refreshments. During the business session twenty delegates were appointed to attend the convention of the Woman's Home Missionary to be held in Glenwood Tuesday evening and Wednesday of next week.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized this morning at ten o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Green, living north of the city, when their daughter, Miss Aileen Green, was united in marriage to Hugh Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, living northwest of this city, by the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion in pink and white lilacs and sweet peas.

The bride looked lovely in a white silk tulle and georgette dress with a picture hat of white georgette and other accessories to match. She was attended by a bridesmaid, Miss Beulah Meredith, who also was dressed in white georgette and wore a white georgette hat. The bridegroom was attended by Raymond Holbrook. Upon the entrance of the bride party, Miss Margaret Weakley played a program of bridal airs.

Following the ceremony a high noon three-course dinner was served to the guests. The dining table was centered with a large French basket of sweet peas and individual sweet peas marked the places for the guests. Only the immediate family was present, which included about twenty-four guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left this afternoon on a motor trip through the east, after which they will be at home to their many friends in this city.

The bride is a well known young woman of this city, having attended the local high school, and is popular among the younger social set. The bridegroom is deputy sheriff and is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity.

TO REDUCE SUGAR PRICES

Hoover Would Ration Supplies For The Luxury Trade

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 14.—Rationing of sugar to the luxury trade under the Lever act was recommended today by Herbert Hoover as a means of reducing prices.

Hoover was testifying before the House Judiciary committee investigating the case of Attorney General Palmer of allowing Louisiana sugar producers to charge 17 and 18 cents a pound for sugar.

WILL CUT BEEF PRODUCTION

Cattle Feeders Reach Decision Today Due to Losses

(By United Press.)

Lafayette, Ind., May 14.—Indiana cattle feeders meeting here today decided to cut down the production of beef steers because they said experiments show a loss. About two hundred men attending the meeting were given reports that shippers of steers to Chicago for fattening resulted in a loss of $23 a head. The loss was attributed to high price of feed and a drop of 7 cents in the market price.

Inspired by the advice of an American actress, Antonio Moreno joined a stock company at Northampton, Mass., after completing his course at Willistown Seminary. Soon he was engaged by Leslie Carter and later appeared with Constance Collier in "Thais." Then he went into silent drama and played with Edith Storey, Irene Castle and Pearl White. Then Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, placed him under a long-term contract and introduced him to the serial. His fiery black eyes, black hair, complexion of "golden paller" and a talent for expression make him the ideal type for the screen.

First Express Company.

The first person to enter the field of transporting articles of merchandise by express carrier was William Frederick Harnden, of Boston. He made his first trip from that city to New York on Feb. 23, 1839, having only enough to fill an ordinary valise. In a few months he employed two carriers and extended the service to Philadelphia.

APPEAL IS UNDER WAY MANY PLACES

Reports Indicate Salvation Army Campaign is Meeting With Success Throughout State

IN FULL SWING HERE SOON

Ross Conway, Former Rushville Boy, is in Charge of Home Service Movement at Lafayette

While the Salvation Army Home Service campaign is being delayed in Rush county, reports from other regions in the state indicate that the appeal will produce the full quota of $452,000 needed to carry on the social uplift work of the organization the coming year.

It is hoped to have the local campaign in full swing by next Monday because the special Elks committee appointed to take charge, will meet tonight at 7:15 o'clock at the Elks club.

Rush county citizens this year will be asked to pledge $7,500 for the support of the Rushville corps, the increased amount being due to a budget for local improvements. Plans call for the removal of the church in South Pearl street to the corner of Pearl and Main and the purchase of a home for the Salvation Army captain and his family.

If the amount asked is pledged, the captain's home will be equipped so as to be of service in social uplift work. The plans call for a basement with a public bath and a gymnasium on a small scale.

In many counties of the state the appeal was started this week with elaborate ceremonies and the greatest interest was created in the success of the movement. At Lafayette 100 workers inaugurated the canvass with a banquet and Ross Conway, son of Mrs. Edwin Bowen of this city, the director of the campaign, predicted that the quota for Tippecanoe county would be raised in the first few days of work.

The women are working in many counties, having organized to do a large measure of the work. In Scott county the school teachers have undertaken to make the appeal and reports received from Mrs. H. B. Hays, of Scottsburg state that the teachers are making splendid progress.

Among the chairmen who reported yesterday to state headquarters stating that their organizations are in the field and prospects are favorable were: Dr. W. D. Bretz, Dubois county; Howard J. Gescheider, Lake county; John L. Wade, Boone county; Floyd Young, Knox county; Mrs. Alice L. Tripp, Jennings county; H. Montgomery Purviance, Huntington county; C. H. Fawcett, Warren county; and E. F. Clemens, Perry county.

No reports of the amounts raised will be given until after the close of the canvass as the pledges will not be collected until the close.

OUTCOME OF APPLE ORCHARD

External Factors Play Important and Complex Part Upon Mature Trees Which Are Bearing.

The external factors in orchard growth play an important and complex part upon mature apple trees which are bearing heavily. Although the trees may make a greater growth in a wet season than in a very dry one, other competing factors may enter to a sufficient degree to practically annul this fact. A change in cultural or fertilizer methods may also greatly modify the normal growth of the trees. These points must be taken into consideration when summing up the probable outcome of the apple orchard.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

DE LAVAL

In 1903 - 1904 a 400 pound DeLaval cost $100.00. It took 600 pounds of butter at 15c per pound to pay for a separator. In 1914 it took 263 pounds at 28c to buy a 450 pound machine. NOW it only takes 180 pounds at 61c to buy a 500 pound DeLaval with the Bell Speed Indicator as regular equipment.

Agriculture Department Tells Farmers How to Grow Sorghum And Make Good Sirup

AS SUBSTITUTE FOR SUGAR

An Acre Will Yield Between 200 and 400 Gallons of Sirup Which is Most Profitable

The department of agriculture in this article gives additional information regarding sorghum and the making of sirup. In a recent article the department urged people to grow more sorghum and emphasized the fact that it was a cheap crop, as well as helpful in the conservation of sugar, and profitable from a financial standpoint.

The department also urges farmers and those interested in the production of sorghum and sirup to write for bulletin 477, "Sorghum Sirup Manufacture".

The sorghum plant is similar in appearance to corn, growing about the same height and possessing about the same color. It may be grown throughout the United States in practically all regions where corn is grown, though parts of the extreme northern tier of States have a growing season usually too short for sweet sorghum to mature. In growing sorghum for sirup care should be taken to secure seeds of a sweet sorghum variety, and for planting in the North, one which matures quickly.

Sweet sorghum is grown from seed and is planted in rows about 31 feet apart. The plants should stand from four to six inches apart in the row. Approximately from five to eight pounds of seed is needed to the acre.

Ordinarily planting time falls soon after corn planting, when the soil has become thoroughly warm. The stalks of the plants are ready for sirup making when the seeds which form heads at the top of the stalk are in the late dough stage; that is, just before they become dry and hard.

The machinery necessary for making sirup consists of a mill for extracting the juice from the cane and an evaporator for reducing the juice to sirup. The mill contains three iron rollers between which the sorghum cut at about 6 inches from the juice. It may be operated by a gasoline engine or by a sweep drawn by horses.

The usual type of evaporator consists of a rectangular, flat-bottomed pan or galvanized iron or copper. Evaporation may be produced by direct contact with fire or with steam. In the former case the pan is mounted on a specially constructed fire box. If steam exavoration is employed the pan is provided with steam coils which lie on the bottom of the pan. In some cases a double-bottomed pan is used, the space so provided being employed to carry the steam.

Other articles needed are barrels or tubs for catching the juice, pipes for conducting it to the pan, skimmers for removing the scum, apparatus for testing the sirup's consistency and barrels or cans for holding the finished product.

In making a sirup the blades of the plants are stripped off, the sorghum cut at about six inches from the ground, the seed heads removed. The sorghum is passed through the mill with as little delay as possible. When the weather is cool or there is danger of frost, the sorghum may be cut considerably in advance of pressing for when properly piled, it will keep for several days. The juice extracted by the mill is strained and then run into the evaporating pan. As it passes through the pan, it quickly comes to a boiling point and a scum rises to the surface. This should be constantly and carefully removed.

Sirup should be evaporated to a point where it contains not less than 70 per cent solids; that is, has a weight of not less than 1 1/4 pounds to the gallon. If placed in containers while boiling hot and properly sealed, it will keep indefinitely.

The department's publication describes in detail the methods of manufacture, including the clarification of the juice if such is desired, and the utilization of by-products. The latter includes the blades of the plants which make excellent feed for cattle, the bagasse (the stalk from which the juice has been removed), the scum which may be fed to hogs in small quantities, and seed heads which also have a feeding value.

The average yield of sirup an acre is from 75 to 200 gallons, although in some cases it has been as high as 400 gallons. The estimates on the yield of seed an acre vary from 600 to 1,600 pounds.

James W. Gerard, a Candidate. Spent Four Years in Germany

James Watson Gerard is the only living American who in official life "sat on" the kaiser.

As United States ambassador at Berlin, the former justice of the New York Supreme Court faced the difficult problem of protecting American interests in Germany at a time when the treacherous propaganda of the former war lord was, like an octopus, reaching out its tentacles to entangle America.

"America had better look out after this war. I will stand no nonsense from America after this war," was the challenge Wilhelm hurled at Gerard when the ambassador was closeted with him in an interview of an hour and a half, in 1915.

It has never been printed when Gerard replied; but his careful handling of the delicate situations during the ruthless submarine warfare proved he plainly indicated America's position and that he gave Germany to understand the United States' attitude was firm in its demand that the lives of neutrals be respected.

Gerard's four years in Germany were filled with more difficulties than ever a diplomat faced in a foreign country. Besides taking care of the affairs of his own country, he turned his embassy into a clearing house for all communications between the warring nations and protected entente interests in Germany.

At the outbreak of the war Gerard and his "faithful family of one"—his wife—with the aid of several Americans in Berlin, were instrumental in arranging for relief for stranded tourists and for those who were subjected to arrest and indignities on the belief they were Russians, British or French.

Gerard was born at Genesee, N. Y., in 1867. His early education was obtained in the public schools of the town, while he received university education at Columbia University, New York. He was graduated in 1890 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and two years later took the LL. B. degree at New York university.

Gerard was married to Miss Mary Daly, daughter of Marcus Daly, a mine owner of Montana. In 1892 Gerard opened a law office in New York, following his admittance to the bar. His first political connections were with the democratic party as chairman of the campaign committee of New York County, an office he held for four years. He also had experience in khaki, serving as second lieutenant and captain in the 12th infantry, New York National Guard. He later became major and quartermaster of the First Brigade.

Gerard was elected associate justice of the New York Supreme Court in 1908 for a 13-year term. He resigned five years later, when President Wilson appointed him ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Germany. He served at Berlin during the trying days of the outbreak of war among the European nations and handled correspondence between the United States and Germany when war clouds hung over Washington. He left Berlin Feb. 1917, when the United States broke off relations with the German empire.

While in Berlin Gerard was nominated for the Senate by New York democrats, but American affairs in Germany at that time—1914—were not in shape in Gerard's opinion for him to leave his work there. During the war the American embassy, which Gerard had transferred to No. 7 Wilhelm Platz—a palace formerly occupied by a German prince—was the center of varied interests, mainly because it at first represented the largest neutral country and because Gerard had taken over the businesses of several entente nations then at war with Germany.

On returning to the United States, Gerard was active in stimulating the American people to greater action against Germany. His delineation of German feeling and policy and his version of the viewpoint of the then emperor were considered as most authoritative and timely. Probably no other person in the country so severely indicted Germany as Gerard. His counsel was invaluable in aiding State Department officials to construe German communications looking toward peace.

Gerard is now practicing law in New York City. Gerard was one of the first democrats to be put forward for the Presidency. He, however, declared at the outset he would not be a candidate if President Wilson sought a third term.

Girl Refugee to Work for Lepers

A LEPER island has no terrors for one who has experienced the Turkish atrocities in Armenia, according to Miss Helen Chobanian, a young Armenian Salvation Army worker who is in New York on her way to Java, where she will work among the lepers with other Salvationists.

Miss Chobanian was born in Diabekir, where she lived until she was five years old. Then the atrocities of 1890 took place. Her father and mother were killed before the little girl's eyes. She escaped with her brother over the rooftops to another street, where they hid from the Turks for a time, and were ultimately taken to Paris by Mrs. Booth-Hellberg, sister of Miss Evangeline Booth, Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States.

Miss Chobanian's assignment to the leper work is for an indefinite period. Java is one of 63 countries and colonies wherein the Salvationists maintain their work.

WHITE ENAMEL

The highest grade enamel in the world. Flows freely under the brush. Covers double the surface of ordinary enamels and dries with a beautiful lustre that does not show a brush mark or lap. For interior or exterior work it is unsurpassed, and is not affected by exposure to severe weather conditions. A beautiful white at the start and stays so. Let us show you the beautiful finish this enamel produces.

VETERAN DRIVER WILL BE IN ANNUAL RACES

"Smiling Ralph" Mulford Will Enter Speedway Races For His Eighth Time on May 31

FINISHED 5 OUT OF 7 STARTS.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14.—"Smiling Ralph" Mulford, one of the select few drivers who has faced the starter in every 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway has entered a Mulford Special in the Eighth International Sweepstakes to be held at the Speedway, Monday May 31.

And incidentally, Ralph has finished five times out of his seven starts. Mulford is the "Topsy" of the racing game.

The first race in which he got a chance, he won, although he was forced to share with Harry Minchner, for whom he was driving relief. This was back in 1907, in a 24-hour race on the Points Breeze track in Philadelphia. "Twice-around-the-clock" events became his favorites and he still holds the non-stock and stock records made at Brighton Beach nine and ten years ago, respectively. For many years he was star of the Lozier team, winning the first Elgin Road Race in 1910, when it was still a stock car contest.

"Smiling Ralph" is a real veteran of the Indianapolis track. In the first race in 1911 he was second in a Lozier, the year following he was tenth in a Knox, in 1912 he drove a Mercedes to seventh place, while the next race found him in eleventh place with the same make car. The 1915 race was the first he did not finish. He was driving a Duesenberg but was forced out. His best position was third in a Peugeot in 1916. Last year driving a Frontenac he dropped out in the 37th lap with a broken driveshaft.

"At one of our examinations," says a member of the faculty of a western university, "a new student had been instructed to write out examples of the indicative, subjunctive, potential and exclamatory moods. His efforts resulted as follows: 'I am endeavoring to pass an English examination. If I answer 20 questions, I shall pass. If I answer 12, I may pass. God help me!'"—Harper's Magazine.

Talking "To" and "With."
To talk to a person is to address words to him; to talk with a person is to speak and listen alternately—to carry on a conversation; to talk of or about a person is to say things concerning him; to talk at a person is to address words to another or others for the purpose of having them heard by the one for whom they are meant.

Electric Light and Power for Happy Farm Life

For Dependable Service Install The Silent ALAMO
Electric Light and Power Plant

Everybody knows the advantages of electric light and electric power. Everybody wants this modern day convenience. The big question is "What plant shall I select?"

Take our advice. Select the plant that's silent—the plant that's free from terrific vibration—the plant that won't quickly shake itself to pieces. Install the wonderful Silent Alamo.

No Vibration—No Noise

In the Silent Alamo there is no noise—due to the quiet operation of the Idle Super Silent Motor with the rotating sleeve-valve. There's no severe vibration—due to scientific balancing of weight.

Thousands of farmers as well as small city engineers have been convinced by this silent plant. Come in and see a demonstration. Learn why the Silent Alamo means years of service.

FARM DWELLERS ASK FOR BOOKS

Announcement of the "Books for Everybody" Movement Brings Letter Flood.

INFORMATIVE WORKS SOUGHT

Requests for Reading Matter Range From Volume on Drainage to Collins' "Book of the Stars."

The announcement of the entrance of the American Library Association upon the "Books for Everybody" movement and still later news accounts of the activities of the organization along these lines resulted in a widespread appeal from residents of the rural districts of the country for books on farming. Whether the American farmer is simply evidencing his ambition to do a good job better or whether the better crops of his neighbor, who has attended an agricultural college or school, has spurred him on, is a matter difficult to determine. But the fact remains the farmer is asking for books. The great majority of American farmers are either without libraries and book service or they are inadequately served.

One of the points which the American Library Association in its "Books for Everybody" movement is strongly urging is the extension of the county library system in states where enabling acts have been passed—some twenty-one in number—and the proper legislation in others which have not yet taken the step. The system, with its central library and radiating lines to stations in the remotest sections of the county, assures good books to every man, woman and child who cares to reach out a hand and grasp one.

Letters Show Need of Service. The American Library Association is not giving its entire attention to the urban dweller, nor is it neglecting the centers of population for the rural districts and communities. It is, however, unquestionably eager to create a steady flow of informative reading to rural America. That the need for such service exists and that it is anxiously sought is evidenced in every letter of this nature received by state library commissions and by the A. L. A. A few excerpts have been selected because they seem to express most truly the needs of thousands of others.

When Lydia Carlson, whose farm is beyond Mason, Wis., asked for copies of "Productive Farm Crops," "Productive Vegetable Growing" and "Principles of the Practice of Poultry Raising" she echoed the book needs of her neighbors. Then she revealed the fact that her eyes are not always in the furrows by asking for a copy of Collins' "Book of the Stars."

What Others Desired. There was a pressing need behind the letter from James Dunn, who lives ten miles from Convent, La., the nearest town, which has a population of only 500 people. He asked for a copy of "Practical Farm Drainage." The task of keeping his acres dry was beyond him. Walter Williams of Osseo, Wis., wanted to know if he could make fuel alcohol from frozen potatoes and spoiled fruits, and if he could, where there any books on the subject. The requests run the whole range of farm operations. Some wish to know how to treat scale, others desire facts on hog raising. Books giving information on crop rotation are in demand.

The American Library Association is raising a $250,000 fund to finance the "Books for Everybody" movement which during the next three years will be carried on in co-operation with existing libraries and library agencies. The money is not being raised through the medium of an intensive drive but through the individual efforts of the librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries.

Fence Posts That Last 40 Years

DON'T replace another decayed or broken post with one that will undergo the same process of wastage in a few years. It is a big loss of money—as much as $50 and more a year. Long-Bell Creosoted Yellow Pine Posts will mean an end to all repairs and replacements and are easily obtained.

CREOSOTED Yellow Pine POSTS

These everlasting posts of selected yellow pine of slow growth are practically indestructible. The Long-Bell hydraulic vacuum creosoting process treats every wood cell right to the heart and makes it practically decay-proof. Why pay for frequent changes of posts that rot and decay? Trade life of your fencing by using posts treated the Long-Bell way. Last a Generation. For a Catalog and prices, write to Long-Bell Creosoting Co., 1000 North Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. or to your local lumber dealer.

The After Effects of Pneumonia

This is No. 2 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Pneumonia attacks the air cells of the lungs. An inflammation is set up and matter is thrown off which causes the air cells to solidify, thus preventing the natural flow of blood thru the lungs. This "backing up" of the blood causes the heart to pump harder, just as stepping on a hose increases the water pressure, which is the reason why, during this disease, the physician watches the overburdened heart so carefully.

After recovery the lungs are filled with a mass of wreckage—the debris of the battle—which must be gotten rid of by a process known as resolution. Frequently, inflamed spots remain, congestion persists, cough hangs on, and the least exposure brings on a cold that is hard to get rid of. If neglected, such damaged air passages may easily develop serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should always continue under a physician's care and frequent examinations should be made to see that nature is properly continuing the rebuilding process.

Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub will aid nature in this work. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 232 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

Finish the Job Right

SOMETIMES we are inclined to let a job go half done—or leave it when it is almost finished. It's poor business. Finish any job you start—and finish it right. Take the matter of harrowing:

A field that has been gone over with a disk harrow and smoothed with a peg-tooth harrow usually presents a pretty good seed bed under favorable conditions. But all too often the seed bed isn't as good as it ought to be in spite of diligent disking and harrowing. Very frequently there are hard clods that are dug up by the disking which lie scattered about the field like stars in a clear, moonless sky. Each one of these lumps is a crop killer—it is taking up good air and moisture without offering any return therefor to you.

Finish the job right by crushing these hard lumps with a Dumham Culti-Packer. Not only is this implement very valuable in completing the preparation of a good seed bed by pulverizing the hard lumps and clods dug up by harrowing, but it also prevents winter killing to a great extent. When the culti-packer is used early in the spring, it packs the soil that has been humped up by the frost, leaving wheat roots exposed to the air, thereby "replanting" this grain by packing the soil around the roots.

Come in and have a look at one of these culti-packers. We sell them.

LEGION DRIVE IS ON ALL NEXT WEEK

Nation-Wide Project is to Seek One Million Additional Members For National Organizations

NOW HAS 1 1/2 MILLION MEMBERS

Inactiveness of Members Will be Cause For Failure to Get New Members, It is Claimed

Indianapolis, Ind., May 14—Members of The American Legion, who will conduct a nation-wide campaign for new members, May 17-22, believe that their chief enemy will be none other than old General Inertia.

The Legion now has approximately one and a half million members and seeks to get a million more. When it is remembered that four and a half million men and women are eligible for membership, by reason of active service in the World War in army, navy or marine corps, it does not seem that The Legion's aim is an extravagant one.

Posts throughout the country, of which there are now about 9,500 report that their chief obstacle in getting men to join has been mere inertia. Thousands of men are convinced of the desirability of Legion membership principles. But they have failed bership and are in hearty accord with to "obey that impulse" and become active members. It is believed a national membership push will supply the additional impetus that will cause a majority of these victims of inertia to join The Legion.

The Legion has done enough beneficial things for ex-service men generally, whether they were members of the organization or not, to earn it a high place in the affections of these men. The Legion has obtained from Congress an increase of base pay for the disabled from $30 to $80 a month. It has adjusted thousands of claims for war risk insurance for service men and their dependents.

Until The Legion took hold, the Federal Board for Vocational Training was not functioning properly in many districts. Recently a plan of co-operation between The Legion and the board has been advised, that promises to speedily solve the rehabilitation problem for all the disabled.

The Legion has helped to secure preference for ex-service persons and their widows in civil service appointments and special preference for the disabled.

The four-fold compensation bill for all ex-service persons, now before Congress is familiar to all as being the handiwork of The Legion. Back in those days just following demobilization. The Legion was an active agency for re-employment and co-operated with national, state and private organizations to speedily return service men to profitable and suitable employment.

A recent act of the organization has been to raise a fund throughout the nation, with which to decorate the graves of all the soldier dead in France. To this purpose the money is being forwarded to the Paris post of The Legion and this post will superintend the ceremonies.

In all these activities The Legion has acted for service men as a whole and not only for its members. A great many service men are expected to reciprocate by joining The Legion now.
